

Sally looked at the score of the soccer game. Her team had only two goals. The other team had three goals and was winning by one point. Only five minutes were left in the game. The crowd was quiet. Sally fell down and let out a yell. She was hurt and couldn't play, so she had to sit on the bench.

All at once, Carmen, the smallest player on Sally's team, got the ball. She flew down the sidelines. Taking aim, she kicked the ball at the goal. The ball hit the back of the net, and the score was tied. The crowd cheered.

Two minutes were left in the soccer game. Carmen refused to give up. She kicked another goal. Six seconds later a loud whistle blew, and Sally's team had won! When the girls looked around, everyone was clapping for their team.
